Walking in victory

By Jeremiah Afaayo

As we face the expanse of the new year, we might get anxious about how we are going to be able to handle the different responsibilities that await us. It might feel more logical for us to worry and try to ensure that we are in control of everything.

But Philippians 4:6 tells that we should not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, we should make our requests known to God and then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

We also have to take time and study the word of God for through it we get to learn about the workings of the Holy spirit who enables us to have the power and wisdom to do the great and mighty things that God wants to do through us this year.

One of the devil's common lies is making us think we can find satisfaction from what this world has to offer. In this way we get stuck in cycles of despair since nothing in this world lasts or satisfies. Our trust has to be in God for He promises that when we drink the life giving water He gives, we will never thirst. (John 4:14)

As our theme this year is calling us to revival we have to get intentional about keeping ourselves in constant prayer. Prayer is where we have to let God take control of things and simply trust that He has our best interests at heart. Whenever we pray, we need to let go of the world views on prayer and take on Jesus' view. (Mathew 6:9-13)

The world will try to tell us that there is no need to pray because things are not immediately changing. But we have to know that the more we pray, we build up our faith and as we declare God's word into situations they eventually bow.

The devil tries to get us thinking in the 'when then' lie. When everything is okay, then I will thank God. (Psalms 137:4). God's desire is for us to give thanks in everything (1 Thessalonians 5:18). Note that it doesn't say 'for' everything, which means that even though things may not be good, we can still give thanks for God is always good! (Psalm 118:1)

We also have to understand that as we pray for clarity about which decisions to take in this new year, we also need to pray for commitment to do what God wants us to do. This is important because obedience is better than sacrifice. Cain knew what he had to do but because he was not committed to obeying God his clarity benefited him nothing. God desires your obedience more than your sacrifice.

God desires your obedience more than your sacrifice.

Obedience to God might at times feel like we are walking blindfolded but we have to step out in faith and trust God. Just like automatic doors require you to take a step forward so that they can open, we have to move forward regardless of what we see.

As we feed on God's word this year we have to let the Holy spirit develop a lion character in us, one that does not give up when circumstances become tough.

Romans 5:3 teaches that we have to rejoice even in tough times because they build character in us. It's during these times that we get to see God as a comforter, protector, provider and sustainer.

When troubles of any kind come our way, we should consider it an opportunity for great joy knowing that when our faith is tested our endurance has a chance to grow and when our endurance is fully developed we will be perfect and complete needing nothing. (James 1:2-4)

Tough times help us to grow our faith as we declare with utmost confidence that nothing can separate us from God's love that is revealed to us in Christ Jesus our Lord.
