Why the enemy wants you

Testimonies

Compiled by Barnabas Byamukama

My name is Edith, a redeemed life youth, I thank the Almighty God for His grace upon my life that has enabled me to successfully graduate with a bachelors degree in Education and a diploma in institutional administration and management.

As a church, we thank the God for blessing two of our own sisters from the mass choir with holy matrimony and with colourful wedding ceremonies. Esther Tembelo now married to Mr. Goffe Adam and Daniella Bidhoro married to Mr. Joseph from Nigeria. We also glorify the name of the Lord for the wonderful 10th anniversary celebrations that we had on the 28th and 29th October. We had a wonderful time thanking the Lord not only with words but also with our possessions.

Knowing your true worth

WRITTEN BY SHILOH AYESIGA

Even before God created us and His universe, we were the focus of His love. He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be Holy and without blame before Him in love. (Ephesians 1:4).

Knowing your worth is paramount if you are to become all that God created you to be. First of all, you need to know that God loves you for who you are; your flaws and all and not just for what you can do for Him. This means that God can use you regardless of your past mistakes. Remember that in His eyes your worth is fixed and there is nothing you can do that can diminish it.

No matter the situation you might be going through, remember that even when it's hard for you to love yourself, there is a God who loves you unconditionally.

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life.

John 3:16

Whenever the enemy comes to you with the lie that you are not worthy, choose to focus on the fact that Jesus went through torture, betrayal and denial all because of you. He suffered death, was buried and on the third day he conquered the grave giving you a new identity as child of the most high God.

Why the enemy wants you silent

WRITTEN BY TRACY NANYONGA

" So then faith comes by hearing, that is hearing the good news about Christ"

Romans 10:17

The word is so powerful that it can break the chains of the enemy and lead people into the kingdom of God. It is like medication that brings life and gives hope to all who believe. This is why the enemy wants to silence every believer and stop the word of God from being proclaimed.

In the Bible, Paul and Silas were setting people free through their ministry of proclaiming the gospel and the Lord was building the early church through them, the light of Jesus was shining and the darkness of the enemy was being pushed back.

Then one day they encountered a slave girl with a demon spirit who continually harassed them.

This went on day after day until Paul got so exasperated that he turned and said to the demon within her, I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her, and instantly it left her" They ended up being thrown into prison.

The same thing happens today because there is a great spiritual battle for the souls of people.

If you are leading people to Jesus, or if you are proclaiming the word of God expect push backs from the enemy, the enemy does not want people to come to faith and have hope.

So whenever you feel like the enemy is silencing you, remember 1 John 4:4 "But you belong to God, my dear children, you have already won a victory over their people, because the Spirit who lives in you is greater than the spirit who lives in the world. And just like Paul and Silas did, keep on praising the Lord, this helps you look up and know where your real strength comes from.

Question: What kind of motor vehicles are in the Bible?

Answers: Jehovah drove Adam and Eve out of the Garden in a Fury.

David's Triumph was heard throughout the land.

Also, probably a Honda, because the apostles were all in one Accord.
