WAIT ON THE LORD

By Shiloh Ayesiga

"Wait for the Lord; be strong and take heart and wait for the Lord."

Psalm 27:14

Waiting on God was one of David's secrets of being a man after God's own heart. In scripture we see David taking time to inquire from the Lord before going into battle.
(1 Samuel 30:8)

God was his confidence, and he sought His will in every aspect of his life.

He waited on God for guidance and instruction, for help and defense,
for vindication and victory over his enemies, for His forgiveness and loving kindness and so much more.
Nothing tries our faith like waiting on God. Waiting tests our submission to Him as our trustworthy guide. Waiting is not necessarily resignation from all activity; it is submission to God's better idea.

Waiting on God means that all of our life is brought under God's umbrella of authority and direction.
If we run ahead of God, we will be painfully chased by turmoil, failure
and exhaustion.

We should wait with patience,
rejoicing and trusting in God's word which never fails. Prayerful waiting enables Christ's explosive power to infuse us with strength and courage to keep on persevering to the end.

THE BELT OF TRUTH

TRACY NANYONGA, JEREMIAH AFAAYO

Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled around your waist,....

Ephesians 6:14

The belt of truth is the first part of the armour Paul mentions because a belt holds everything else together. Jesus is the belt of truth (John 14:16) and it is only through this 'truth' that we come to God.

Putting on a belt speaks of being self disciplined and alert. So if Jesus is the belt of truth, we have to fix our hope completely on Him. "We have to be serious about living this new resurrection life with Christ by acting like it. We should pursue the things over which Christ presides. Not shuffling along, eyes to the ground, absorbed with the things right in front of us.

We should look up, and be alert to what is going on around Christ—that's where the action is. We need to see things from His perspective." (Colossians 3:1-2 MSG).

Seeing things from God's perspective requires us not to accept the world's view on life but rather to live transformed lives since our minds have been renewed by the word of God. (Romans 12:2)

The world says we should chase after the things of this world but God says we should seek first His kingdom and His way of being right and then other things will be added unto us. (Mathew 6:33)

Just as a belt holds things together, when we have Jesus at the centre of our lives, we can be confident that He will strengthen and sustain us. When situations try to shake us, He makes us immovable and unshakable because we trust in Him.
